About Trinity Theatre

Trinity Theatre is dedicated to designing and delivering progressive self-development programs which enable the connection between youth and their communities. Our vision is to make every Canadian skilled in learning, leading and serving in their communities.

Our innovative community-based training and peer mentorship programs provide opportunities for youth to grow on a personal level. They do this by building relationships, learning new skills, and creating a lasting impact on their lives and communities.

Our youth employees assist in creating outreach strategies developed to engage youth - particularly those who are underrepresented, disadvantaged, or disengaged. Key organizational activities and programs youth employees are involved in include:

- Youth Councils intended to provide youth a voice in their communities while also providing them with the organizational support to make sustainable change within their community;
- 'Service Engagement in Community' workshops and walking tours designed to inspire and encourage youth to participate in meaningful volunteer service;
- 'Volunteer Service Mindset' projects and initiatives that tackle issues identified by youth and provide them with entrepreneurial skills and experience needed to succeed in the future. There is an emphasis on developing intergenerational and accessible projects.
- 'Collective Impact Hub' forums and events held with community stakeholders giving youth the opportunity to promote youth councils' work, as well as develop networks and intergenerational support
- Mixed Media Micro Journalism creating content detailing youth experience in the community and showcasing the meaningful work being executed. Content creation will be supported by research and developed alongside a communications team, including but not limited to videos, reports, and podcasts.

Responsibilities:

The primary function of the Marketing Manager is to lead and execute marketing activities across the organization in close collaboration with the executive team. The role will involve working on brand marketing including creating engaging content, developing marketing collateral, online/in-person event marketing and management support, partnership management and more. Their work may include:

- Strategy – Work with the executive team to develop and execute annual/quarterly marketing plans to support the overarching strategic growth plan for Trinity Theatre.
- Campaign Planning – Generate, and lead the development and execution of marketing campaigns across channels such as: Website, Email, Partnerships, Conferences, Events, and Social Media.
- Content - Create and manage a content calendar to give visibility to cross-functional teams.
- Branding - Standardize and maintain the visual and verbal messaging for Trinity Theatre's brand, programs, and services.
- Outreach - Develop and execute outreach activities aimed at strengthening relationships and partnerships in Grey/ Bruce County, Toronto & the GTA.
- Writing - Execute copywriting for design and print marketing material. Support in grant writing & other identified writing tasks as needed.
- Budget - Develop and maintain a marketing budget.
- KPIs - Track performance metrics for all initiatives and use insights to measure and optimize impact.
- Reporting - Prepare and submit quarterly and annual reports highlighting marketing successes and KPIs to be delivered to funders and grantors.
